Dear Mother & Father,
I hope you are all well. I am writing you from the hospital. I have been in bed for a few days and I am feeling better.
I will be home soon.
I love you all.

Love,
John
P.S. You were a lovely friend when I was in the hospital.
I will never forget you. Thanks for all your love & care.

Well, what can I say. What a woman Annie was. She sowed in a currency that was love. That she is alive and well in everyone who attended and wanted to attend the memorial service.

Annie's legacy lives on in all those lives she touched. She made a massive impact on me and also my wife Natalie. She will be missed, a lot.

Dear Andrew's Family,

Thank you for such a lovely warm service.

Anne meant so much to myself, having met her in 1981. We remained firm friends ever after.

So sorry to learn of her illness and her passing so sudden thereafter.

Love to you all.

My dear Anne,

I love you lots and I'm humming and of words... The last conversation we had you said you wanted to meet me and I was not there, this afternoon when I saw you. I want to hold your hand and you were not here... I'm sorry

I did not visit you.

I have always loved you and will always.

You are my second "mum" you are the best.

A dear Scottish mother - 'A Beautiful soul inside out MOTHER' is the only person who showers unconditional love on her children. When she called me her 'Indian daughter' she meant my word of it. A 'MOTHER' in the true sense Beautiful relationship will be cherished & treasured & clarity. Mom was an epitome of love, affection & care. will miss you only and the warm hug.

MOM, ALL IS NOW SAID, ALL IS NOW DONE.

I HAVE BEEN GRACIOUS AND TO KNOW HOW TO DO (MAY) - LOVE SENT.

NO INCENTIVE, NO GUARANTEE AND PATIENCE BE-LOVED.

"SMART" A SIGN OF YOUR LOVE FOR THIS SON.

THIS TIME OF DEATH I CAN NEVER REPEAT.

I HOPE I CAN HOLD ON TO EVERY PART, FORGIVE ME I FEEL.

DO NOT PLEASE KNOW THIS, EVEN BEING, EVEN MINOR, EVEN HURT.

OF MY DAYS I WON'T FORGET OUR WONDERFUL DAYS.

GO REST IN YOUR PLACE.
