

The McLeman Photo Circular - Christmas 2017

Roddy Kari, and Hamish in Shetland in January

Welcome to our photo update for 2017.

Obviously the later part of the year had a very sad ending with Annie passing away on the 17th November, however like the funeral, we wanted this to be a celebration of her life, and we did have a good year up to the summer when her health started to fail.

In April we stayed a few days with Jean in Poundbury (Dorset) as part of our annual down South tour.

We were at The Andre Rieu concert at the SSE Hydro in March

We managed our usual "Down South" trip – Reading – Dorchester – Wales and Stoke in April A super holiday to Dublin in May and Alora in Spain June.

Family party at Mid Calder in April

Andrew also made a trip to Shetland for Kari's birthday in September,

In Reading with Bobby and Smitha in April

With Jean and Janice in Dorset in April

Andrew made a new pound coin at the Royal Mint in Wales in April

Last year we met Ed and Joan Ames from Boston in Nantucket. This year they were touring Ireland and, so we met up with them again for a few days in Dublin in April

This year we took Annie's friend Beryl to Alora in Andalucia

Enjoying a meal with Donal's "family" at dinner in Alora

Daphne was over from South Africa in June and we did the Kelpies

Visiting Concorde with Daphne in June

With grandsons Murray and Douglas in July

Our 10th wedding anniversary in July

Annie's Celebration of her life at West Lothian Crematorium on 24th November 2017. The tribute to Annie can be found at <http://www.mcleman.org/annie.html>

Andrew did the new Queensferry Crossing experience in September
