The Wedding Party

Welcome again another photo update for 2008. and this year it all seemed to happen in March....

Ewan and Anna were married ....
Neill graduated from Police Academy... and Andrew and Annie flew to South Africa for a holiday.

Ewan and Anna sign the contract!

We had a great holiday in South Africa in March and April courtesy the wonderful hospitality extended by my second cousins Mervyn, Lorraine and Shirley Thomson. We all traveled together down the coast from Durban as far South as Port Alfred then in land round Lesotho and still had time to meet up with our other friends in Durban. We had a really great trip!

Alison and Neill love the great outdoors and are always off camping and hiking!

Ewan and Anna had their wedding in Ellon in March and had their honeymoon in Florida. They also had a second trip across 'the pond' in New Hampshire in October. Anna now has a permanent primary teaching position and Ewan has a temporary promotion to principal teacher position at his school in Sandwick.

Neill graduated with the highest academic marks at Tulliallan Police College in March and was posted to Livingston, and is loving it. Alison has been promoted within SEPA, and they are still living in Livingston.
